Territorial Waters Jurisdiction Act 1878

1878 CHAPTER 73 41 and 42 Vict

An Act to regulate the law relating to the Trial of Offences committed on the Sea within a certain distance of the Coasts of Her Majesty's Dominions. [16th August 1878]

Whereas the rightful jurisdiction of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, extends and has always extended over the open seas adjacent to the coasts of the United Kingdom and of all other parts of Her Majesty's dominions to such a distance as is necessary for the defence and security of such dominions:

And whereas it is expedient that all offences committed on the open sea within a certain distance of the coasts of the United Kingdom and of all other parts of Her Majesty's dominions, by whomsoever committed, should be dealt with according to law:

CARIBBEAN AND NORTH ATLANTIC TERRITORIES

The Bermuda (Territorial Sea) Order in Council 1988

Coming into force - - 28th November 1988

1. This Order may be cited as the Bermuda (Territorial Sea) Order in Council 1988 and shall come into force on 28th November 1988.

3.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (2) to (4) of this Article, the baseline from which the breadth of the territorial sea adjacent to Bermuda is measured shall be the low water line along the coast including the coast of all islands comprised in the Colony of Bermuda.

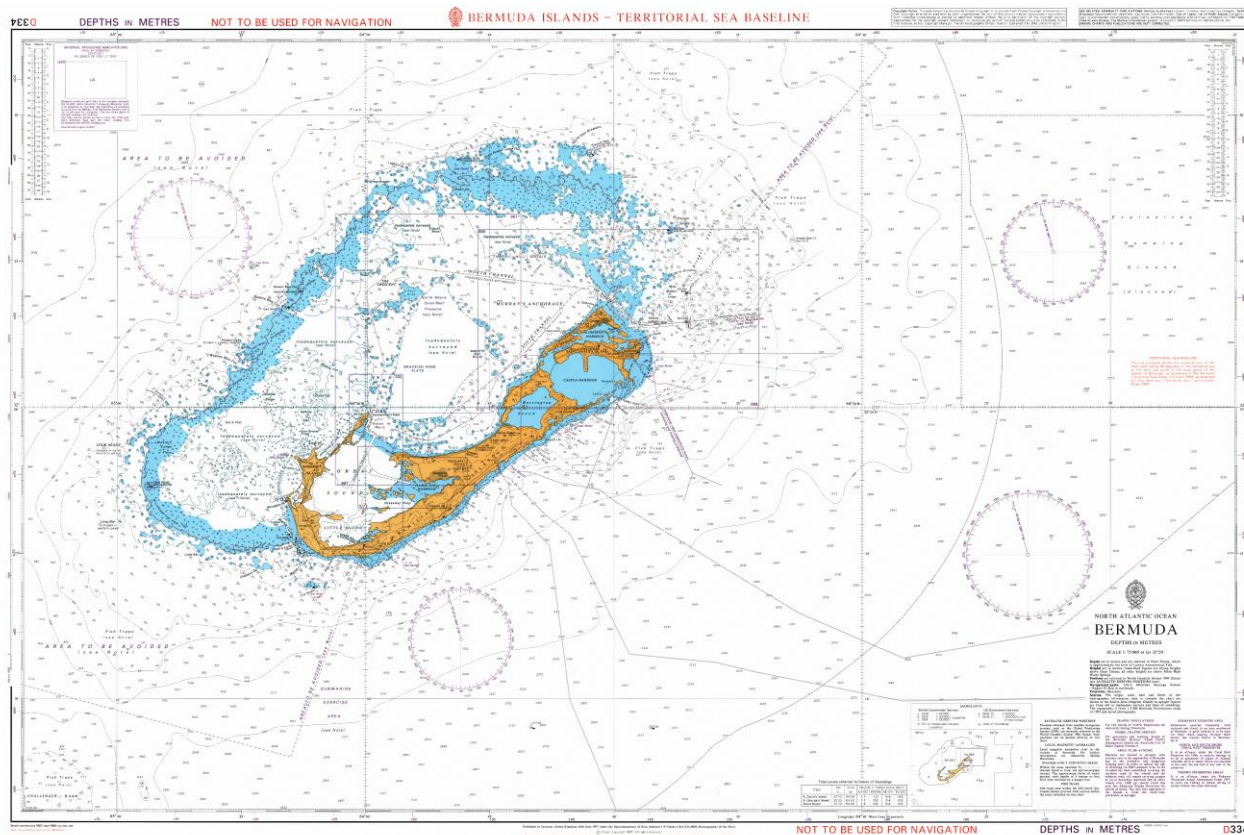

(2) For the purposes of this Article a low-tide elevation which lies wholly or partly within the breadth of sea which would be territorial sea if all low-tide elevations were disregarded for the purpose of the measurement of the breadth thereof and if paragraphs (3) and (4) of this Article were omitted shall be treated as an island.

(3) The baseline from which the breadth of the territorial sea is measured between a point on the coast at 32°15.2'N64°52.3'W inshore of Hogfish Cut and a point on the coast at 32°22.7'N64°39.7'W inshore of Town Cut, subject to paragraph 4 of this Article, shall be a line following, in a clockwise direction, the seaward limit of the highest areas, shown as awash on Admiralty Chart 334, of the main reef surrounding the area of deeper water to the west and north of the main group of islands of Bermuda.

(4) Where there is a break or passage through the main reef referred to in paragraph (3) of this Article, a straight line joining the seaward entrance points of that break or passage shall constitute the baseline.

(5) In this Article—

TERRITORIAL SEA

The Territorial Sea (Baselines) Order 2014

Made 27th May 2014

Coming into force 30th June 2014

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of May 2014

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by section 1(1)(b) of the Territorial Sea Act 1987(a), in place of, and with the advice of Her Privy Council, in order, and it is hereby enacted, as follows:

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Territorial Sea (Baselines) Order 2014 and shall come into force on 30th June 2014.

(2) The Territorial Waters Order in Council 1964(b) and the Territorial Waters (Amendment) Order in Council 1998(c) are revoked.

Baselines

2.—(1) Except as provided in Article 3 of this Order, the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea adjacent to the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man shall be established in accordance with the relevant provisions of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (d) (as modified and set out in Schedule 1 to this Order).

(2) In Schedule 1 to this Order, except as the phrase "low-water line", the word "line" means a geodesic line.

3.—(1) The baseline from which the breadth of the territorial sea is measured between Cape Wrath and Laggan shall consist of the geodesic lines drawn as so to join successively, in the order in which they are there set out, the points identified by the co-ordinates of latitude and longitude in the first column of Schedule 2 to this Order, each being a point on the low-water line and on or adjacent to the feature named in the second column of that Schedule.

(2) In Schedule 2 to this Order, all positions given by means of coordinates are defined on World Geodetic System 1984 Datum (WGS84).

(a) 1987 c.49; section 1 of the Territorial Sea Act 1987 was extended to the Isle of Man by the Territorial Sea Act 1987 (Isle of Man) Order 1991 (S.I. 1991/1712); and section 1 of the Territorial Sea Act 1987 (Isle of Man) Order 1991 (S.I. 1991/1712) was amended by the Territorial Sea Act 1987 (Isle of Man) (Amendment) Order 2002 (S.I. 2002/280), and to Guernsey by the Territorial Sea Act 1987 (Guernsey) Order 2003 (S.I. 2003/1000).

(b) 1963 No. 6, S.I. 1963/6.

(c) S.I. 1998/264.

Isle of Man Maritime Limits

No license specified Accessible to Everyone 6/12/2019 Feature Service

The limits and boundaries of the UK, UK Overseas Territories and UK Crown Dependencies are available from this website in accordance with Articles 16, 74 and 84 of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea. Limits are calculated from the normal baseline (the low water line on the largest UKHO charts) and limits are maintained by UKHO. Please note that these limits will only be updated annually.

Where we are now

- New legislation and treaties in modern data geographic terms (horizontal datums and definitions of line geometry).
- UK, overseas territories and crown dependencies navigational charts with baselines, limits and boundaries
- Marine Data Portal with annual update of shape files and illustrations
- Still geographically weak legislation and treaties which will not necessarily be updated in quick order, and demand from legacy systems.
- Engagement with standards, data provision, user needs
